

Fees, Charges and Expenses

1. The University reserves the right at any time to revise its published scales of fees and charges whether in respect of new entrants or of students already on their programme.
2. The fee for any particular programme will be notified on application to the Academic Registrar.
3. Fees for a session (or part of a session) are payable for the course in two instalments according to residence status. See undergraduate or postgraduate for further details on how to pay your fees. All other fees, charges and sums payable to the University are to be paid in full within seven days of the date of the invoice.
4. No person shall be awarded a degree, diploma or certificate unless he or she has paid the Tuition fees prescribed and due to the University (Ordinance 7.4.5).
5. Students in difficulties over settling their debts to the University are urged to discuss them with Student Fees at the earliest opportunity.

Fees 2018/19

Access details of your Tuition Fees for 2018/19 here.

6. The fees quoted in 'Money Matters', except where otherwise stated, are sessional fees for 2018/19, inclusive of all charges for matriculation, enrolment, tuition, examination, graduation and, where applicable, Students' Union subscription but not fees for re-examination. Enrolment with the University leads automatically to a liability for fees. A student who for any reason withdraws during the session will be entitled to a refund calculated on a pro rata basis: see Tuition Fees Refund Policy. The fees applicable to visiting students and to students pursuing programmes in the affiliated institutions are given in the appropriate sections below.
7. Fees charged to full-time overseas students (excluding EU students) cover the full cost of tuition, examinations and membership of the Students' Union and, for research students, research support expenses. The University does not normally charge additional bench fees to overseas students who pay the inclusive fee. Part-time overseas students will be charged at 50% of full-time programmes.
8. Students attending programmes but not seeking a qualification of the University will be charged fees to be determined in each case by the Academic Registrar but the following guidelines will apply:
 - a. Full-time attendance: UK or overseas full-time Tuition Fee appropriate to programme.
 - b. Part-time attendance: UK or overseas part-time Tuition Fee appropriate to the programme.

12. Except in cases where special examination arrangements are in place, or Special Considerations apply, any student whose examination script is deemed illegible by the examiners may be required to pay for it to be converted to typescript for marking. This will be charged at £10 p.h.

13. If payment of Tuition Fees is not received in accordance with the fees policy, the Director of Finance will inform the Academic Registrar. The students concerned will be liable to termination of programme. The effective termination date will be determined by the amount of Tuition Fees paid on a pro rata basis. Students may also be refused examination in accordance with Ordinance 7.3.6.
14. If payment of any other debt is not received by the due date the Director of Finance may refer the total debt outstanding to the University's external debt collection agents for recovery. The student concerned will be liable for any charges arising from the referral including the referral charges and the costs of any court action.
15. Students who are expecting to progress on a programme into the next academic year but who have a Tuition Fees debt to the University outstanding on 31 July may not be permitted to sit examinations (if any) in the following September and will not be permitted to enrol for the following session while their Tuition Fees debt remains outstanding. Enrolment will only be granted upon receipt of cleared funds and the student may be requested to provide advance payment in full for Tuition Fees. The programme of such a student will thus effectively be terminated if the Tuition Fees debt remains unpaid.
16. Students who have not made full payment of Tuition fees for a programme at the University of Southampton will not be permitted to enrol for another programme at the University until cleared funds have been received by the University, and the student may be requested to provide advance payment in full for Tuition Fees for the subsequent programme.

20. The above list is not exhaustive. Students on taught programmes can gain a more detailed understanding of additional costs by looking at information about cost implications for the modules which he/she must take and/or could choose to take for the programme.
21. All Students are advised to read the Programme Specification in order to obtain the latest and fullest list of additional costs associated with their programme of study.

Hall Fee Regulations

Follow the link to access the University of Southampton Hall of Residence Regulations.

22. Fees Due
- a. Fee liability becomes due once a place has been accepted.
 - b. Students wishing to leave Hall will be financially liable for the full period of the contract unless an appropriate replacement can be found by the Residence Service. Where no appropriate replacement is found, a student wishing to leave Hall who feels that, due to unforeseen exceptional circumstances, severe hardship will result from their continuing liability for the full duration of their Residence Agreement, he/she may write to the Deputy Residences Manager requesting to be released from such liability ("the Request") detailing how such circumstances have arisen, and including any evidence as may be appropriate in support of their case. The Deputy Residences Manager will, based on this evidence and after consultation with the Warden and the Accommodation Officer, make a recommendation to release the student or not, subject to ratification and appeals as set out in the Residence Handbook.
 - c. When a student withdraws or suspends from a programme in accordance with the regulations, hall fees are due for 7 days from the date the student vacates his/her place unless 7 days' notice has previously been received.
 - d. Full fees are due if a place for the start of session is cancelled less than 10 working days before the start of that session.
 - e. A pre-payment deposit of £350 is required for all first year postgraduate students. This is deducted from the final instalment of hall fees.

- f. A pre-payment of £150 is required for continuing students. This is deducted from the final instalment of hall fees.
