

The Ordinances Part 5: Affiliated and Accredited Institutions

5.1 Affiliated Institutions

The following institution is affiliated to the University

University of Chichester

5.2 Accredited Institutions

The following institution is accredited by the University to offer programmes of study leading to University of Southampton qualifications under arrangements governed by an Instrument of Accreditation:

University of Chichester

Notes:

The University of Chichester was formerly an accredited institution of the University of Southampton. It was granted research degree awarding powers on 24 September 2014. The accreditation arrangement with the University of Southampton formally ended on 27 September 2018 when the last research student was awarded a degree under this arrangement. Further details can be accessed in the Archive 2017/18.